BIBLE TIME

Jesus and the Paralyzed Man

(Matthew 9:1-8, Mark 2:1-12, Luke 5:17-26)

Because of a large crowd around Jesus at a house in Capernaum, some men lowered their paralyzed friend through a hole in the roof to a place directly beside Jesus. Jesus forgave the man's sins and healed him. The healed man and the people who witnessed this miracle praised God.

We will practice scissor cutting using play dough and even make play dough pizzas! We will make puffy paint snowmen to decorate our hallway for winter. We will practice counting with a snowmen dice game. We will also do snowman button counting.

MOVEMENT

We will begin our "fluffballs" movement unit. During this unit we will focus on tossing and catching, rolling, as well as underhand and overhand throwing. On Friday we will have a fluffball "snowball fight."

RECALL TIME

Using popsicle sticks, the students will make pictures or letters representing where or what they played with. The children will also play charades, for their classmates to guess what they did during work time.
